11:40 am – 12:30 pm Session #2 Workshops

Diversity Student Panel

Ackerman Grand Ballroom

UCLA has long championed diversity and is one of the nation's most diverse research universities. Hear from a panel of transfer student leaders who will share their first-hand experience of campus community, discuss opportunities for involvement and share connections they have made within and across communities at UCLA.

UCLA Undergraduate Research Centers: Sciences & Humanities, Arts and Social Sciences

Bruin Reception Room

Are you familiar with what undergraduate research looks like? Join us to hear about the opportunities for research across various disciplines. Whether you are interested in doing research at a lab with faculty or doing your own independent research, you'll hear from URC and current transfer students conducting research on campus.

First Gen – First To-Go

Bruin Viewpoint Room

In this workshop, discover the First To-Go Program, aiding First-Generation College Bruins by linking them to campus resources, fostering networking with faculty, staff, and peers, raising awareness of their unique experiences, building community, and encouraging academic success. Explore the significance of being first generation!

Student Employment Opportunities

Viewpoint Conference Room A

Explore the array of on-campus job opportunities at our student panel, where experienced panelists will share insights into roles spanning academic departments, administrative offices, and student services. Discover how on-campus employment can enhance your college experience and provide valuable skills relevant to your future career aspirations.

Unlocking Study Abroad Opportunities

Viewpoint Conference Room B

Join UCLA's International Education Office to discover how you can embark on life-changing global adventures and delve into exciting opportunities while studying abroad! Expand your educational horizons and learn about the opportunities available to transfer students.

TransferMed

Ackerman 2408

TransferMed serves to facilitate UCLA transfers toward obtaining opportunities, clinical exposure, resources on/off-campus. If you are interested in pursuing the pre-med field and don't know where to start, look no further. As transfers, we typically only have a 2-year window to take advantage of what UCLA has in store. TransferMed is here to bridge the gaps for connections of all levels and help develop one's professionalism, increase support groups/friendships & more.

Center for Accessible Education

Ackerman 2412

In this workshop, learn about the Center for Accessible Education (CAE) which aims to foster an inclusive learning environment. Through collaboration with faculty, staff, and students, CAE provides academic accommodations, advocates for disability rights, and serves as an educational resource for the campus community.

Personal Insight Question Workshop

Ackerman 3517

The personal insight questions are one of the sections in the UC Application where you can highlight your experience and your story. Hear from admissions experts on how to utilize your PIQ's to add value to your application and showcase yourself to admissions readers.

Navigating Imposter Syndrome – The Rise Center

Kerkhoff Hall State Room - Level 1

As transfer students you might experience moments of uncertainty and fear. The Rise Center at UCLA is here to remind you that you belong. Learn about how to navigate imposter syndrome and transfer shock within higher education and the tools available to you as you embark on this journey.

Pilipino Transfer Student Partnership

Kerkhoff Hall Art Gallery - Level 2

The Pilipino Transfer Student Partnership (PTSP) is a diverse community of Pilipinx transfer students and transfer and traditional allies. PTSP strives to serve as a home, safe space, and launching pad for transfer students becoming integrated into UCLA through academic and holistic growth.
